Haywood County Public Library
Waynesville

gratefully dedicated

We, the Senior Class of 1958, are presenting this yearbook as a pictorial record of our accomplishments at W. T. H. S. On the pages of this book are recaptured many precious moments and long-remembered friendships of the past years. With memories of the months of dreaming, planning, and working that comprise the "Mountaineer", we dedicate our annual to Mr. M. H. Bowles, the District Superintendent, so well known to all of us, sincerely hoping that this book, in some small measure, will show Mr. Bowles how very much we appreciate his inspirational guidance and interest in us. His willingness to help in any way he can, and his ability to cope with all problems have instilled within our hearts a deep sense of respect and admiration for Mr. Bowles. We have reached the first open gate on the road to our individual goals, and we realize that this milestone would never have been reached without Mr. Bowles' leadership. We are privileged to have the honor of dedicating our annual to such a fine Christian man.

Mr. M. H. Bowles

The Present

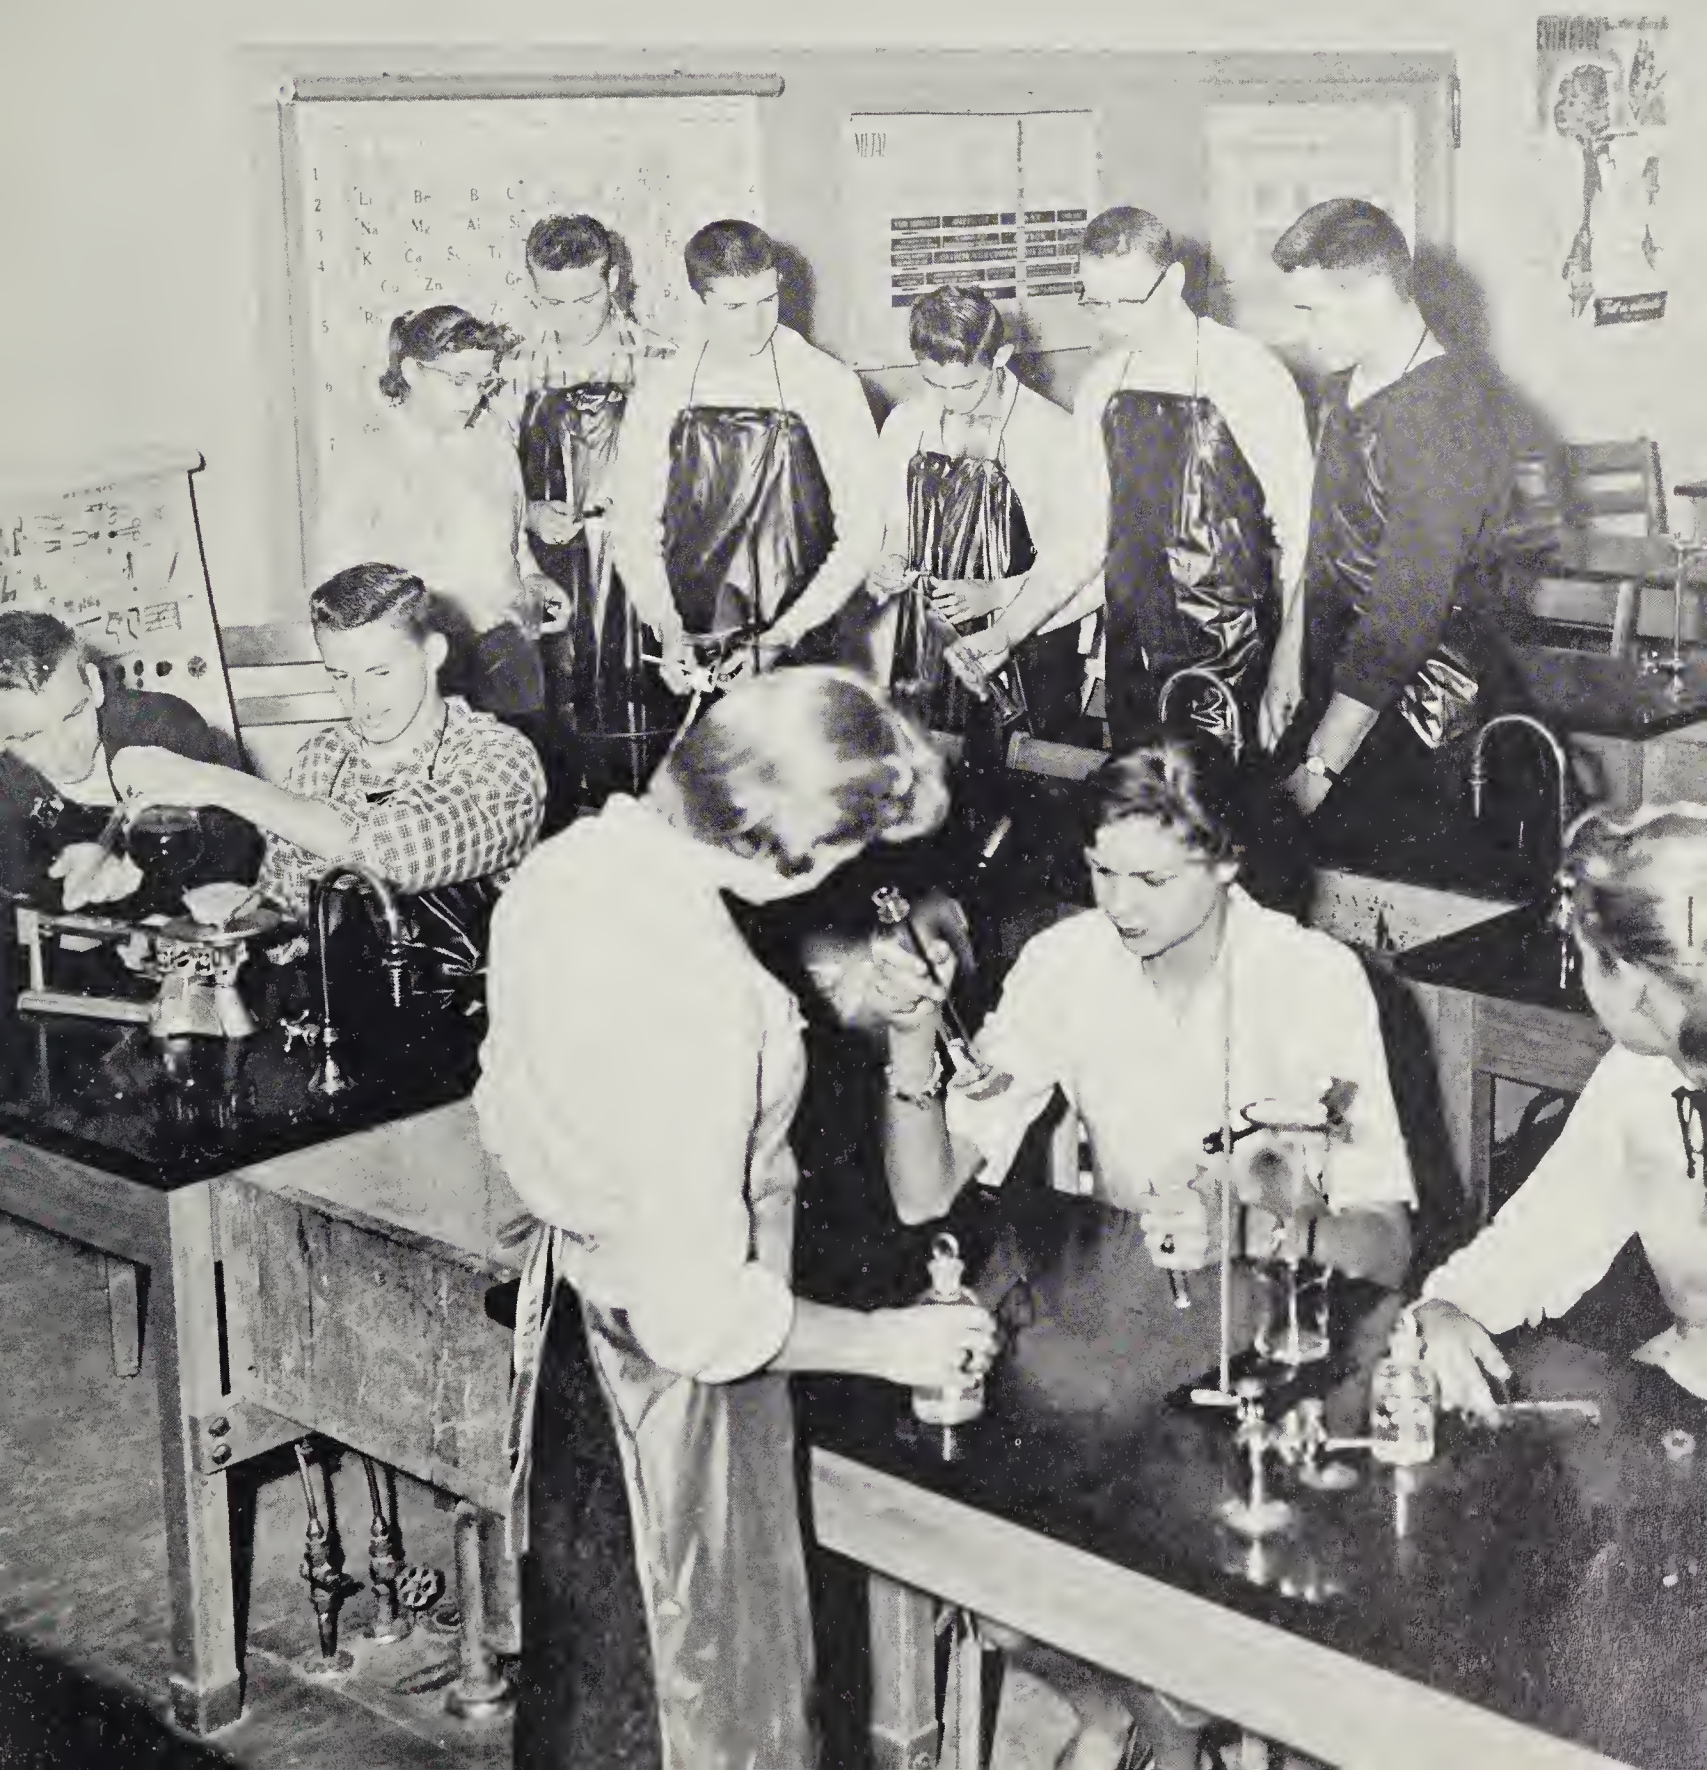

Remembering all the little things that counted . . . seeing the knowledge that wiser ones had to give . . . worrying about book reports and mid-terms, Junior-Senior, and the May Dance . . . thrilling to the kick-off and the excitement over the Canton-Waynesville game heaving a sigh of relief when exams are over and finally realizing that it was all worthwhile.

To the Senior Class:

We the Senior Class officers of Waynesville Township High School hereby wish to express our sincere appreciation to each member of the Senior Class for his cooperation. Our four high school years have passed away but life's work has just begun. The years will slip by, but may our fondest memories linger on these blissful days. May the Lord guide our footsteps and bring us safely to higher goals.

What Lies Ahead.....

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Freda Ann Breece, leave my ability to get along with my teachers to someone who likes them as well as I.

We, Ross Hooper and Mike Ferguson, leave our sense of humor and know how for the opposite sex to some lucky boy.

We, Ralph Arrington and T. J. Stevens, leave W. T. H. S. everything, except our trips to Canton, to Howell Reece and Paul Arrington.

I, Martha Gaddis, leave my well-worn seat in typing to my brother, Joe.

I, Grace Mills, leave those hair-raising days in Mrs. Sloan's class to my sister, Jo Ann.

I, Lois Greene, leave that old, broken-down, exasperating machine called a typewriter, to Magalene White.

I, Judy Green, leave--but would love to take Jimmy along, too.

I, Carolyn Gaddis, leave all my happy days and good times to Joyce Caldwell.

We, Ruby Burchfield and Elizabeth Kilby, leave our favorite teachers to Linda and Shirley.

I, Carolyn Byrd, leave those hilarious days in English to someone who can laugh as much as I.

I, Nancy Stiles, leave my sure-footedness on the basketball court to Joyce Leatherwood.

I, Jessie Lee Sutton, leave my well-earned place on the basketball squad to my sister, Dorothy.

I, Brenda Queen, leave my ability to be late getting back from lunch to Susie Cagle.

I, Shirley Sheehan, leave my open-minded ways to Margaret Bradshaw, and Wanda Nelson.

I, Amelia Nichols, leave my honor of being co-captain of the basketball team to my sister Dickie.

I, Nancy Lou Moore, leave all of those never-to-be-forgotten moments to my cousin, Jo-Ann.

I, Edna Horton, leave all the fun I've had on Eagles' Nest to Billy Underwood, providing he can make it to the top.

I, Oberia Gaddy, leave my unusual journeys and funny experiences to Geraldine.

I, Maggie Hannah, leave all those good, but easily forgotten times to my sister, Mildred.

I, Lynda Davis, leave those crazy times around the "old Fort" to Brenda Paige.

I, Evelyn Hightower, leave my quiet reserve and ability to get along with everyone to some deserving person.

I, Frankie Arrington, leave all my fun and frolics to Glenda Hooper.

I, Ines Gumban, leave my dancing steps to my sis, Nilsa.

We, Dale Rogers and Ernie Henshaw, leave our special ability to never be on time and always enjoy ourselves once we're there to some junior couple.

I, Judith Ann Davis, leave my crooked smile to anyone in chorus who can't sing "O" as required.

We, Kathryn Frady, and Reba Freeman, leave our ability to "court" boys out of school to Evelyn Blanton, and Kathy Hill.

I, Gerald Arrington, do hereby leave my trips to Sylva and cell in World History to Comrade Alvin Gilliland.

I, Toby Ray, hereby leave--but my sister's still here to carry on the good name of Ray.

I, Joe Haskett, hereby leave my job at Ray's Flower Shop to anyone who loves those lovely little flowers as I do.

I, Ray Medford, leave my three carburetor Chevi to anyone who can afford gas for the thing.

I, Dewey Wright, leave my fond old trips to Clyde and Hendersonville to anyone who has the nerve to do it.

I, Linda Wood Fowler, leave the old tramping grounds to take up permanent housekeeping with Don.

I, Mary Ann Fisher, leave my "second home", the Band Building, to anyone who loves music and musicians as I do.

I, Rosalind Ammons, am being stingy 'cause I'm taking my love for the Music Department with me.

I, Wanda Turner, leave my dunce cap in chemistry to the next poor shrunken head.

We, Gail Camlin and Joan Prevost, would like to leave something to someone, but we're going to need everything we've got for where we're going.

We, Ann Heinz and Bud Miller, leave our good times together as a steady couple to any twosome who can stand each other that long.

We, Marilyn McLeod and Bruce Hipps, leave the future rat-races to Karen and Charles.

We, Joyce Saunders Burris and Beverly Teague Smith, leave our ability to catch a man so early in the game to all the girls.

I, Kathryn Cross, leave my Scarlett O'Hara outlook to Judy Ketner.

I, Agnes Jane Roberson, leave my dynamic left hand to anyone who wants to master the game of basketball.

I, Shirley Bridges, leave my rip-roaring laugh to Betty Rowland. Hope you don't get into as much trouble with it as I have.

I, Judy Thomas, leave my flaming red hair to my sister, Gwen.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Maxine Knight, leave all my sour notes in chorus to Brenda Keener, poor gal!

I, Georgia Mae Smith, leave all my love for those cool cats of Clyde and Canton to June Cogdill.

I, Deanna Bryson, leave my much earned vacancy in chorus to anyone who enjoyed it as much as I.

We, Ronnie James and Carolyn Arrington, leave those long talks in the halls to any two some who can talk as much as we.

I, Nancy Dixon, leave--but take my love for that good ole army life with me.

I, Mary Sue Campbell, leave my dancing ability to Judy Woody.

I, Helen Allison, leave my perfect attendance record, despite my physical handicap to anyone willing to try it.

I, Jack Nichols, leave my nose to anyone who runs out of phonograph needles.

I, David Underwood, leave for parts unknown (with my draft-card, of course).

I, Jere Buchanan, leave my lost, but gay weekends and love for wild parties to Johnny Carswell.

I, Jewell Campbell, leave my spot on the cheering squad to some lucky gal who is looking for a wonderful experience.

I, June Hendricks, leave my ears to anyone who has the desire to fly.

I, Pan Parkman, leave my love for Spanish and my ability to always be talking at the same time Miss Chambers is--to Jean Weatherby.

I, Geneva Allison, leave all my good times at W.T.H.S. to my sister, Barbara.

I, Phyllis Morgan, leave my so-called "free" periods to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Wilma Sims, leave my love to a certain Cullowhee boy to any girl who's lucky enough to get him.

I, Joyce Cody, leave all the good times we had to my brother Bruce, wishing him the best of luck.

I, Barbara Lockman, leave my originality to Pat Holland.

I, Shirley Lewis, leave my love for the sea to my sister, Donna Sue.

I, Agatha Wright Wood, leave my good will to all coming seniors.

I, Pauline Trembly, leave my battered typewriter to Peggy Wright.

I, Mona Robinson, leave--but I'm taking my memories with me.

I, Barbara Blanton, leave, but I'm taking my love for sailors with me.

We, Janet Milner and Tom Franklin, leave our long courtship to Bonnie and David.

I, Beverly Holloway, leave my good times at slumber parties to be carried on in traditional style by June Gaddis, Bonnie Siler, and Jean Howell.

I, Grey Watkins, leave my feet to the next poor pigeon, who leaves his crooked tracks around the "fort".

I, Gail Muse, leave all my times, both good and bad, to my sister, Patricia.

I, Jo Ann Noland, leave my quiet ways to Frances.

I, Susie Clark, leave to the Saunook gang the duty of pitching those "wild parties" once I'm gone.

I, Lois Hannah, leave my music abilities to my brother, Don.

I, Charles Holland, leave my easy going ways, mainly because I've got to.

I, Tommy Boyd, leave my shy, but devilish smile to Jack!

I, Frances Bryson, leave my good times in geography to anyone who thinks they can get away with it.

I, Paul Burrell, leave in hopes that I'll never return.

I, Jack Davis, leave my lively personality to anyone who likes lively personalities.

I, Jerry Deweese, leave my slow drawl to the next fellow who has the necessary time needed to talk as I do.

I, Sam Frady, leave all my wild sleepless nights to someone who can afford No-Doze.

I, Kathryn Green, leave my quiet, but wonderful times at W.T.H.S. to someone who will enjoy it as I have.

I, Emmitt Higgins, leave my green thumb to anyone who loves agriculture as I do.

I, Jesse Hollingsworth, leave my high school fun behind me, but don't worry -- more's to come!

I, Lynn Truitt, leave my ability to flirt to my sister, Sandy.

I, Carroll Burris, leave that daily session of 7th period to anyone who lays out.

I, Glenn Bumgarner, leave my bus driving to Wallace Rogers.

I, Doyle Bolin, leave my chair in world geography to my brother Gerald.

I, Bill Garwood, leave my bass horn position in the band to my brother, Harold.

I, Louise Trammell, leave my speed in shorthand to my sister Shirley.

I, Darrell Moody, leave my ill-spent days in chemistry to someone who can stick it out longer than I did.

I, Jimmy Mann, leave my high school career behind me--but then who wants it?

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Doyle Cagle, leave, I hope.
I, Beeryl Thomas, hereby leave my seat on bus 41 to Margie Buff and Nancy Jones.

I, Richard Chandler, hereby leave electronics to Alton Ray Abernathy.

I, Keith Gibson, leave bus no. 59, but I'm taking Ollie Jean with me.

I, Wilford Moody, leave my back seat in English to my brother.

I, Clarence Rash, leave my ability to sleep in study hall to anyone who stays out late.

I, Kenneth Fugate, leave my six weeks tests to anyone who can pass them.

I, Lloyd Allen, hereby leave my parking place on the hill to someone who has a 50 Ford that won't start.

I, James Carver, leave an easy position on the baseball team to anyone who can fill it.

I, David Warren, leave W.T.H.S. with only one thing in mind--I've found my gal!

I, Harold Harris, leave things in general to Gary Todd, who knows what they are, and what to do with them.

I, Minnie Mae Evans, leave my good times around the halls at W.T.H.S. to "Cricket" Mills.

I, Hillard Jones, leave my private parking place at Charlie's for $5 a night.

I, Barbara Lewis, leave my love for square dancing to Mattie Sue.

I, Oscar McCarter, leave, but no one will ever know I'm gone.

I, Bobby McCracken, leave!

I, James Marcus, leave W.T.H.S. to my brother Freddy. Take care of it, Fred.

I, Billy Messer, leave my bus and its passengers to anyone who thinks he can stand it.

I, Jerry Nelson, leave, in hopes I may never return again.

I, James Parton, leave, because there's very little else to do.

I, Polly Parker, leave my love for singing to my brother James.

I, Tommy Parris, leave, and I thought I'd never make it.

I, Mary Ann Reed, leave my ability to get caught every time I turn around to some unlucky junior.

I, James Ruff, leave my rough days in Spanish to the Spaniards.

I, Billy Sherrill, leave my hapless days around W.T.H.S. to someone who has as few subjects as I did.

I, Billy Sisk, leave my boring days in study hall to anyone who can't find anything else to do.

I, Wayne Sugg, leave advanced algebra and plane geometry--and for a while there I was pretty worried.

We, Stewart Duckett, Jack Lewis, and Bill Moore want no tears shed because of our leaving.

I, Harry Gaddis, leave my racket of selling candy in electronics to anyone who's in need of a little pocket money.

I, Milford Green, leave those noisy brats on my bus to Johnny Jones for future years.

I, Charles Miller, leave my line place in industrial arts to Melburn Knight if he decides to drive number 50 next year.

I, Jim Fowler, leave the friendly atmosphere and all the good times to my sister, Margaret.

I, Joel Rothermel, leave my drum major baton to anyone who will be as glad to work and to have fun with the job as I.

I, Skipper Sloan, leave my "hot" cornet to anyone who has the perseverance to stay up odd hours and practice.

I, Jake Redmond, leave my love for wild parties, and fast trips to Asheville to Johnny Carswell.

I, Jim Barrett, leave my scholastic abilities to Gary Todd.

I, David Moody, leave, and it's about time!

I, Ulus Burnette, leave my best personality to Jean Howell.

I, Bob Pressley, leave my love for band, bull, and ball, to the next guy who enjoys it as much as I.

I, Leon Turner, leave behind all the wonderful band trips and good "ole" times in the music department to someone who will live it up as I did.

I, Stuart Scruggs, leave my winning ticket in the girl raffle to Danny Whisenhunt with my best wishes.

I, Andy Owens, leave my dry and untimely questions to Mark Feichter.

I, Bruce Davis, leave my athletic abilities to carry Waynesville to their wins to Jack Holder.
